Availity Provider Portal Update for Aetna Better Health of Kansas

The Availity Provider Portal is live, join the crowd today and sign up!

Availity is the new destination where health plans connect with their providers for meaningful collaboration. Availity is live for all Aetna Medicaid plans, including Aetna Better Health of Kansas. More features are being added throughout the year.

Through a sophisticated multi-payer portal and Intelligent Gateway solution, Availity simplifies complex provider engagement processes like HIPAA transactions, clinical data exchange and much more. Built on a powerful, intelligent platform, Availity puts data to work through business solutions that strengthen communications, improve financial performance, and simplify processes and systems.

If you are new to Availity and want to register your provider organization, you'll begin by creating your Availity user account. You'll start by clicking Register on the Availity home page to create your user account at <https://www.availity.com/provider-portal-registration>
